AmeriSource and Bergen Brunswig Certify Compliance With the Federal Trade Commission's 'Second Request' for Information

July 27, 2001

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. & ORANGE, Ca.--July 27, 2001--AmeriSource Health Corporation (NYSE:AAS) and Bergen Brunswig Corporation (NYSE:BBC) announced that today each of them has certified compliance with the Federal Trade Commission's request for additional information in connection with their previously announced plan to merge the two companies.

Pursuant to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, today's certification starts the FTC's 30-day review period, which will expire at midnight eastern daylight time on Monday, August 27, 2001. Termination or expiration of the review period is a condition to the consummation of the business combination.

The companies expect to complete the merger by the end of August 2001.

On March 19, 2001, AmeriSource and Bergen Brunswig announced that they had entered into a merger agreement to create a new company named AmerisourceBergen Corporation. Under the terms of the agreement, each share of Bergen Brunswig common stock will be converted into 0.37 shares of AmerisourceBergen common stock and each share of AmeriSource common stock will be converted into one share of AmerisourceBergen common stock.
