August 14, 2001

ORANGE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 14, 2001--Bergen Brunswig Corporation (NYSE:BBC) announced today that the cash tender offer and consent solicitation commenced on July 17, 2001 by its wholly-owned subsidiary, PharMerica, Inc., of PharMerica's outstanding 8.375% Senior Subordinated Notes due in 2008 (the "Notes") has been extended to 12:00 PM (EDT) on Tuesday, August 29, 2001, which is the date Bergen's shareowners are presently scheduled to vote on the proposed merger between Bergen and AmeriSource Health Corporation.

As of this morning, PharMerica received consents from holders of $184,635,000 of the total $308,119,000 in principal amount of Notes outstanding, constituting the majority required to eliminate the designated restrictive covenants from the Notes' governing indenture. Each of the consents was accompanied by the consenting holders' tender of Notes.

Under the terms of the offer and consent solicitation, PharMerica has the right to further extend the tender offer beyond August 29. During the current extension and any further extension of the tender offer, the consents delivered and Notes tendered will remain irrevocable unless PharMerica amends the terms of the offer and consent solicitation, in which case it will issue a further press release to that effect. PharMerica does not have any present plans to make any such amendment.

The terms of the tender offer and consent solicitation, including the conditions to its consummation, are more fully described in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement, which is dated July 17, 2001.
