Good Neighbor Pharmacy Partners with MediZine To Provide More In-Depth Health Information on myGNP.com Web Site

March 14, 2002

ORANGE, Calif., March 14 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Good Neighbor Pharmacy has teamed up with MediZine, Inc., to provide consumers with more news and other health information on the Good Neighbor Pharmacy web site - myGNP.com.

MediZine has been providing credible and reliable health information to millions of consumers since 1995. As a result of this collaboration, the Good Neighbor Pharmacy web site now contains several sources of consumer-friendly healthcare content. Among the new offerings are:

- PDR Patient Information/Medical Dictionary. General information about a wide variety of medical conditions and wellness topics are now available on the myGNP.com web site. The Physician's Desk Reference (PDR) provides in-depth information for patients, including definitions, causes, risks, signs/symptoms of various conditions and diseases, step-by-step care instructions and one-page summary sheets on conditions and diseases.
- PDR Alternative Medicine Guide. myGNP.com now offers a database of nearly 1,000 herbal medications and vitamins as well as information about the actions and pharmacology of these substances, instructions for proper usage, precautions, adverse reactions and dosages. This feature of the web site is designed to provide consumers with a better understanding of dietary supplements, vitamins and alternative therapies. Full color photos of the herbs are also available through the site.
- PDR Family Guide to Women's Health. This medical reference text devoted strictly to women's health issues is another new feature of the site.
- MediZine Guidebooks. Articles from the quarterly MediZine Guidebook, which is distributed free to customers at every Good Neighbor Pharmacy, are posted on the site. The editorial covers a variety of diseases and preventative care topics and the treatments available in pharmacies. Further, the articles encourage consumers to discuss their illnesses or other health concerns with their healthcare professionals.
- News Content by Reuters. Reuters Health, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Reuters Group PLC, the international news service, is the premier provider of daily global health and medical news. The service is used by professionals and consumers to keep abreast of breaking healthcare news stories.
