

Trent Drugs (Wholesale) LTD Changes Name to AmerisourceBergen Canada Corporation

January 23, 2006

Valley Forge, Pa. January 23, 2006 – AmerisourceBergen Corporation (NYSE: ABC) today announced that its Canadian pharmaceutical distribution subsidiary, Trent Drugs (Wholesale) Ltd, has changed its name to AmerisourceBergen Canada Corporation. Trent, headquartered in Kingston, Ontario, was acquired by AmerisourceBergen on October 5, 2005.

"We chose to adopt the AmerisourceBergen name as a signal to our customers and suppliers that they now have access not only to the outstanding customer service that has been synonymous with Trent, but also to the full breadth of resources that AmerisourceBergen brings to the market," said Richard Normandeau, President, AmerisourceBergen Canada. "AmerisourceBergen's financial strength, distribution expertise, and unique retail programs have enhanced our ability to provide superior service and grow our business."

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This news release may contain certain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These statements are based on management's current expectations and are subject to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. Actual results may vary materially from the expectations contained in the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements may include statements addressing AmerisourceBergen's future financial and operating results and the benefits, efficiencies and savings to be derived from the Company's integration plans to consolidate its distribution network. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in any forward-looking statements: competitive pressures; the loss of one or more key customer or supplier relationships; customer defaults or insolvencies; changes in customer mix; supplier defaults or insolvencies; changes in pharmaceutical manufacturers' pricing and distribution policies or practices; adverse resolution of any contract or other disputes with customers (including departments and agencies of the U.S. Government) or suppliers; regulatory changes; changes in U.S. government policies (including reimbursement changes arising from the Medicare Modernization Act); market interest rates; operational or control issues arising from AmerisourceBergen's outsourcing of information technology activities; success of the Pharmaceutical Distribution segment's ability to transition its business model to fee-for-service; success of integration, restructuring or systems initiatives; fluctuations in the U.S. dollar – Canadian dollar exchange rate; economic, business, competitive and/or regulatory developments in Canada; acquisition of businesses that do not perform as we expect or that are difficult for us to integrate or control; and other economic, business, competitive, legal, regulatory and/or operational factors affecting the business of AmerisourceBergen generally. More detailed information about these and other risk factors is set forth in AmerisourceBergen's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2005. AmerisourceBergen is under no obligation to (and expressly disclaims any such obligation to) update or alter any forward looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
